THE TAMARACK

North Central High School
June, 1933

Mrs. Grace Douglas Leonard

To Mrs. Grace Douglas Leonard, whose fine spirit and understanding of students has made her a fine dramatic coach, whose ability to inspire students raises them to the height of their dramatic production, whose rare wit and sagacity keeps all those about her on an even keel, whose cooperation in many of the school projects has aided materially in their success and whose personality has won her lasting friends among the student body of North Central, this book is dedicated by the class of June, 1933.

THOMAS A. BONSER
Friend and Teacher

Few teachers can look back over so many years of useful service given to education as can Mr. Bonser. Although he is retiring from active service in the class room no one can observe any lessening of his remarkable aptitude for teaching. He possesses the same love of the out-of-doors and intellectual curiosity over natural phenomena, the same infectious enthusiasm, the same skill in motivating youthful endeavor as marked the success of his earlier years.

An ordered study and presentation of the facts of science—biology, geology, astronomy, physics—enhanced by a great use of actual materials, provided for him the subject matter of his courses. But, always the young people in his classes were receiving the most favorable environment for fine character growth. Thousands of his former students, themselves out in the busy walks of adult life, remember him for his integrity of character, his wholesome advice, his attitude toward law and order and the need for right conduct and for his personal interest in each of them.

To have been associated with him, first as a fellow science teacher, to receive inspiration and impetus in the study and teaching of science and later in my present capacity, has been for me a privilege impossible to appraise.

I, with others, have shared his friendship and this, the most prized of all his contributions, we still expect to enjoy for many more years to come.

Ye Newe Classe Wille

We, the class of June 1933, being extremely sound of mind, do hereby designate by this, our last will and testament, that our innumerable good traits and our incalculable amount of knowledge be divided among the next ten graduating classes.

Ed "Butch" Anderson, our most worthy president, wills his athletic build and ability to Bill Gold. (Where are you going to put them, Bill?)

Girls take notice! Andy Terris leaves his naturally curly hair (Oh yeah!) to Bert Carlson.

Thor Myhre (Mugs) wills his truthfulness to Irene Schumacher. When a traffic cop gives you a ticket, take the consequences, Irene.

When we asked Joe Anderson and Jim Ashlock what they wanted to leave, they said they wanted to leave the school altogether.

Byron Havens wills his unusual mathematical ability to Jack Davis and Bob Carey. Won't Miss Huston be tickled?

"Crooner" Mills has decided to give up imitating Bing Crosby, but he hopes that Leo Rockkind will fill the much regretted vacancy at North Central.

To Max Tatman is bequeathed Jean Truc's ability at swinging a wicked tennis racket.

Max Schoening, whose graceful ball room struggling, coached by Hildur Anderson, has won the plaudits of the town critics, wills his accomplishment to Howard Wassenar. Watch out for your feet, Spokane Smith!!

"Good Boy" Harry Stone wills his title, won in basketball, to Harold Murphy.

Genevieve Bishop wills her beautiful, glistening, platinum, peroxide blonde hair to George Pupo.

Dick Scott, who is a good track star in the News office and a good columnist on the track, leaves his versatility to Earl Fossum.

George Chica wills his modesty to Bill Melson. The school only knows, you need it, Bill.

Jack Carey relinquishes his technique with the fair sex and his ability as a dancer and a great dramatist to "Wolf" Sherman. (We call Vincent "Wolf" because the girls have a hard time keeping him away from their doors.)

Zona Gable wills her supple figure and limpid eyes to Millie Peterson.

"Romco" Smith and "Juliet" Willard will their undying affection for each other to Vernon McGuire and Lillian Grimsrud.

Charming Catherine Peterson and aristocratic Lucille Engdald will their ability as Lutefisk munchers to Eleanor Peterson and Elsie Anderson.

The senior dramatics class leaves its best wishes to Mrs. Grace Douglas Leonard.

"Bud" Jemison wills his bad knee to "Scotty" McEachran and John Winston. "Bud" stated that it will take two good men to fill his shoes.

Jack Barnes wills his peg teeth to Jack Van Lippeloy. (Just in case Van loses his own.)

Bernadine Barlow wills her ability as a pianist to Nancy Freese.

Sylvine McGinnis refuses to will a thing. The reason for this is that she lost everything she had in the stock crash of 1929.

To "Peer-less" Pearson, president of the R. B. (Romper Boys) club and "Rumble Seat" Rogers is bequeathed Barbara Morrison's and "Wes" Whitmarsh's ability to gaze at each other with that lovelorn look.

Ruth Carter wills her blushes to Kenny Gallagher. Aimee Russell leaves her beautiful teeth and willow-like form to Helen Schumacher.

The class will committee passes on its ability to write wills to the January '34 committee. Just an old Spanish custom.

MARCO BRUSCHI, chairman
CARL GUSTAFSON
VIRGINIA BOYD
JEANNETTE AUMACK
KENNETH BERO

P. S.—B. O. Smith wills his Lifebuoy to Rodrick Paddock.

Class Prophecy

Upon returning home from the Commencement exercises, a graduate of June '33 fell fast asleep. So sound was his slumber that he did not awaken until the morning of June 8, 1930.

He arose and stumbled downstairs rubbing his eyes in dumb amazement, for the gruff landlady who was chastising the petite maid, "Bridget" Carter, was Elois Schleusner, the postman who poked the mail in at the door was none other than "Butch" Anderson.

Not waiting for breakfast, the dumbfounded graduate rushed out into the streets. An airplane zoomed down and just missed grazing the top of his head. The grinning face of the pilot was that of Claude Moore. Iva Broadwell whizzed past in her shining limousine. At her side, in monacle and spats, sat Marco Brusch. The stately chauffeur was Max Schoening of former football fame.

In the window of the Crescent, Lynn Smith was demonstrating a patented carpet sweeper by picking up torn bits of an age-yellowed North Central News. Who could have been so inhuman as to tear up that paper which was the results of the labor of the June '33 graduates?

Up on the fourth floor of Kemp and Herbert's, Harold Langeloh and Herschel Wright were showing little boys how to toot the toy horns.

In spite of the efforts of the traffic cop, Art Pritchard, the traffic was a complete jam. To avoid waiting an hour to cross the street, our hero dropped into the nearest theatre. The sweet girl at the ticket office was a beautiful blonde, Jean True. As the curtain rose, the master of ceremonies, Ben Avey, introduced Ralph Mills, who put the Crosby of 1933 in the shade by crooning a popular old melody, "Just an Echo."

The talkie was an all-star production featuring such celebrities as Miles, Gable, Engdahl and Morrison.

Stunned by the progress of his fellow grads, our hero rushed home. Reaching his room, he unfolded the evening paper he had bought.

On the front page he noted that Miss Aimee Russell had been promoted to the position of girls' adviser at North Central and Miss Myrtle Hagen was a successful teacher of Latin 8. On the next page he read of Jack Carey pleading not guilty to a charge of hurdling back fences with stolen chickens under his arm. The feature cartoon was credited to a person by the name of Campbell. The current book review concerned a late volume by the eminent traveler and novelist, Dean Thompson. On the church page was an announcement of the Sunday sermon of the Rev. Ned Graves.

Our hero threw the paper down and turned on the radio in hope of getting some good music to soothe his nerves. Over the ether came the mellow voice of Redger Bankson. He was announcing a special hook-up with Hawaii featuring June Armstrong and Frances Clark in (guess what!)—a guitar duet.

The amazing way in which his fellow graduates had taken over the affairs of the world was too much for our hero. He slipped to the floor in a dead faint. Not even the efforts of the foremost physician in the city, Dr. R. E. Scott, could revive the hero of this amazing interlude.

Class History

In the fall of 1929, there entered the portals of our illustrious institution, 266 future seniors, who were to grace the dear old halls of North Central. After we had found out where the "shelf" was, and the location of the "roof garden," we considered ourselves "hot-stuff." The school was quite successful in athletics under the able tutelage of Coach "Red" Reese, who succeeded in piloting our teams to victory. Thus ended our frosh year.

When sophomores, our class was increased by approximately 100 students from Havermale. We really began to function at this time by entering whole heartedly into the activities of our school. The foundations were laid for the building up of the League and Federation, which are now headed by members of our class. Unfortunately for our coach, Guy Wicks, who succeeded "Red" Reese, North Central athletics went into a terrific slump; however, we were not down-hearted and resolved to keep up the old North Central spirit.

In our junior year, we began to stage a gradual comeback. We won state and national honors in the news and journalism department. Miss Greenawalt directed the debate team in such a manner as to win high honors. Although we did not win any city championships in athletics, we were near the top. By popular subscription, a bust of George Washington was purchased and presented to the school during one of the Washington bi-centennial convocations.

Because of the loss of a large amount of our school funds, the swimming pool was discontinued, but this was offset by the addition of some new tennis courts and what proved to be our last Pow Wow.

During our senior year, we gained the spotlight in all activities and sports. The dramatics class presented a play of much talent, entitled "Adam and Eva." In boys' athletics the main task in football was carried by Anderson, Chica, Carey, Smith, Bruschi and Sitterlee. Basketball was ably represented by Harry Stone and Ralph Mills. In track we had such shining stars as Welch, Carey and Scott. Anderson, Mills, Morton, Schoening, Godfrey and Bafus were the luminaries of baseball. Prominent girl athletes were: Jean True, Marion Blane, Lucille Engdahl, Evelyn Kull and Virginia Boyd. The plans for the hard surfacing of the tennis courts and the sodding of the playfield were given added impetus by the highly successful Girls' Gym Show, which was put on in March.

The senior B officers were not only creatures of beauty but also of some intelligence. Ed "Butch" Anderson wielded the gavel. Jean True nobly assisted the president. Jack Carey was the manipulator of all pecuniary substance. Aimee Russell proved an efficient secretary. Marco Bruschi assumed the role of the "bouncer." Senior A officers were: Ed "Butch" Anderson, who was so noble a past president that we just couldn't see him go. Aimee Russell was promoted to the vice presidency. Jean True became the scribe of our noble class and Max Schoening assumed the role of King Midas.

We don't like the idea of leaving and depriving the school of a wonderful class. We have reason to be proud because we know that our class is the largest, in as much as 303 are graduated, and the best of any that have come and gone. We have spoken.

"OLD MAN DEPRESSION" AS AN EDUCATOR

"We're on the upward trend" and "the nation has at last reached the (much sought for) corner" are but two of the present popular expressions that were coined during the last three years of unusual times in United States. Although the past 36 months have been similar to a nightmare for many of us, now that we can look back upon it, we realize what a marked change those years have made upon the people.

Members of Uncle Sam's foster family have suffered much from the situation, but, if they have learned but one thing, the depression has been equivalent to an education. If people have at last been brought to realize that striving to gain material wealth is not the most important thing in their short span of life, but that living a happy life—chock full of good deeds—doing their work well and forgetting the fact that they want to "beat the Joneses," then "Old Man Depression" has accomplished a great purpose.

Way back in the dim days prior to the "stock market crash" of 1929, manufacturers were reaching out for more and more property for their mills so as to produce more goods than their competitors. When merchants were well stocked with the products, the "blind" manufacturers still insisted upon enormous productions until the commercial markets were literally swamped with unneeded articles—then the "let down" in employment came quickly. Before this period extravagance and waste seemed to be the people's pastime. Even governmental authorities spent money on the most trivial of things. One incident is brought to light concerning a certain bureau of the government that spent thousands of dollars to find out where bed sheets wore out the soonest—for the benefit of the cloth manufacturers—and lo and behold, they discovered that it wore out the quickest in the most natural place—where the heaviest part of the body lay. These are but two examples of our worldly foolishness that we hope will soon be history.

We can consider ourselves lucky to have been high school students without too much worry these last few years, and also to be in a modern secondary school where the economie position could be studied from all points with broad minded instructors. Our responsibility now is to live up to a certain standard after graduation to set an example for those that follow so as not to permit history to repeat itself.

KEEP STUDENT CONTROL!

North Central is known throughout the Northwest for its student government. Student government, as it exists in the Indian tepee, is hardly known in the other schools of the country where the rules are laid down by the faculty and the students obey them. The government of North Central is maintained by the students—all the rules and management are the result of the action of the members of the student body.

North Central has been cited time after time for its marvelous scholarship, athletics and government. When one finds that the students govern the school it seems nearly impossible. Germany is widely known for its academic freedom but they have nothing better than the academic government in Spokane. The Student Conduct board tries the cases of the previous weeks' miscreants and these five students mete out the just punishments to the proved offenders of the laws drawn up by the young men and women. The Presidents' council tries the library offenders and penalizes them in the same manner that the Conduct board does to the traffic, convocation and ordinary conduct rule breakers.

Without the cooperation of the students themselves, this fine government could not long exist. From the time that a boy or girl enters the school he should be imbued with the idea of fairplay and loyalty to the school. Sometimes we think that the student deputies in the halls, library and convocation are on the same level with us and so should not be obeyed. With such a point of view, our control would not long maintain itself and the teachers would be required to take over the reins of authority. We should think that the student deputies are there not to give us the discipline that we all need, but to work with their best for the welfare of the school.

TESTIMONIAL

We of the graduating class are going out into the world at an opportune time. This is a year which has witnessed a new president at the "helm of the nation." Business is reviving; new positions will be in the offing for those who have the proper education. Some of us will go on to college next fall. Others will find positions in which we will advance as we learn the trade. Many will go to business college to prepare for business careers.

Vast opportunity awaits every member of this class who has the will to get ahead and make a name for himself. No matter what we do after Commencement we shall strive to uphold the name of our high school, where we have formed invaluable friendships and learned innumerable lessons. We have learned the lessons of sportsmanship and fairness and fellowship in associating with our fellow students. We have learned to sympathize and understand by cooperating with the teachers in our classes. We have learned to be able to take what is coming to us and to be satisfied with what we have earned both in the classroom and in sports.

We will take with us all these valuable lessons along with the experiences we have had in school spirit during our high school days. We are all proud of our school and we'll carry away memories that will remain with us all our lives.

"SUCCESS AS A HABIT" OUR MOTTO

Complications that arose during the first quarter of our final term that we as a senior class have successfully overcome are but a few examples of the things that will continue to arise after our graduation. The class was notified by the administration at one of the earlier meetings that it must cancel the plans for a June '33 Tamarack because of the great expense involved.

When this statement was made, the oratorical fireworks began popping, letting up only when a promise to attempt the production of the traditional annual was given. Consequently the administration permitted the matters to rest until the seniors would have to acknowledge defeat so far as planning a yearbook was concerned.

Livewire members began an immediate campaign to gain subscriptions and advertising—but why give further details when the apparent success of their efforts is before you.

We, as members of North Central's largest graduating class, say that one of our biggest achievements has been the successful production of the Tamarack; and, since the class has proven equal to such a task, we have high hopes as to our future.

The Funnybone

Ed Anderson (yawning): I didn't get to bed until four o'clock.

That man Brusch: What for?

Butch: Why, four a. m., of course!

"At dinner," said the fastidious Russell to the new maid, Carter, "you must remember to serve from the left and take the plates from the right. Is that clear?"

Bridget: Yes mum, what's the matter, you superstitions?

Fossam: How do you make a peach cordial?

Melson: That's easy. Send her some candy.

Mrs. Jones: Your boy must be a phenomenally fast runner; I noticed in the paper this morning that he burned up the track with his speed. I suppose you saw him do it?

Mrs. Sherman: No, I didn't see him do it but I saw the track this morning and there was nothing but cinders left!

"It's the little things that tell," said Jerry Anderson as she pulled Ed from under the sofa.

Claude Moore: I'd like to see some good second hand cars.

Salesman: So would I!

Spoky: I'm telling you for the last time, you can't kiss me.

Wassy: Ah, I knew you would weaken.

Scotty McEwen says that he is going to bury his face in his hands to save funeral expenses!

Pat Skene's father told her, upon being asked permission to study music, that he would let her hair grow; the rest was up to her.

Vernstrom: You seem to make light of all your financial troubles.

Thompson: Yep, I burn all my bills.

Waterhouse: All right, Ma, fork over a nickel or I'll tell the conductor how old I am.

Miss Clarke: What tense would it be if I said "Your father has a hundred dollars?"

Raniger: Oh, that would be pretense.

Swale: I promulgating you esoteric cogitations it is best not to use platitudinous ponderosity.

Irish: And the idiosyncratic specimens of homo sapiens who can not iterate in less than polysyllabic profundity should be incarcerated in a penal institution.

French: Whew. Do I hate guys that use big words.

We suppose that the technocrats became poor by putting too many eggs in one basket.

FAMOUS REMARKS

Lillian Young: Where're the men of the crowd?

Dick Scott: Us ole editors gotta stick together.

Wolf Sherman: Boy, am I fast.

Mrs. Leonard: Come on, Andy, we need a set.

Bill Melson: I'm really pretty smart.

Marco Brusch: I'll play a piano solo.

Ruthie Carter: You're an old meany.

Miss Freakes: There has to be more copy in today.

Miss Weideman: What, are you back again.

Earl Fossam: Yes, I guess I've got the brains, all right.

Murphy: My girl and I are on the outs.

Tatman: Don't worry, it's only a lover's quarrel.

Bench-warmer: No, this is serious. We got into a political discussion.

Mr. Collins: Ever have economies?

Gertie Cable: No, only measles and chicken pox.

Tiny Engdahl, the old maid: Water, sir?

Bafus: No thanks, I just had a plateful.

Mr. Green: You'd better watch your step in the shop, young man.

Melson: What's the matter, flooring loose?

Dear Marguerite,
I'm hoping you have lots of luck!

MATHEMATICS CLUB

Sponsoring the Geometry, Algebra and first year Mathematics contest is the main semesterly project of the Mathematics club. Its membership is taken from those students who are vitally interested in Math and who have acquired superior scholastic grades in four semesters of the subject. The aim of the club is to create an active interest in higher mathematics. This year the club presented a plaque for the winners of the first year math contest to the school. The membership is limited to 12 girls and 12 boys of the highest scholastic rating.

seal sales, contests of all kinds, campaigns, Community Chest drives and athletic contests.

The News has always been recognized as a leading high school paper in the contests conducted by Columbia university in New York City. The News began in 1917 and was elected to membership in the Columbia Interscholastic Press association in January, 1922.

In 1922 The News received an all-American rating in a contest sponsored by the Columbia Interscholastic Press association. In 1923 it took first place for headline make-up.

Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalistic society of the University of Washington, gave the state championship for 1924 to 1925 to The News. For the past two years we have received second place honors in the Columbia Scholastic Press association contest.

The News carries exchanges with 70 high schools and colleges, besides exchanging with grade schools of this city and mailing personal copies to persons interested in school activities. Two exchanges are sent to New York and one to South Charleston, West Virginia.

S. P. Q. R. or Senatus Populusque Romanus, means the senate and the Roman people. This club was organized about 20 years ago by Miss Evans for students who were interested in Latin and Roman history. This semester each member of the club was required to give an interesting talk on Roman history or Latin before the club. In this way many facts were gained by all of the members. These talks greatly heightened the interest in the organization.

Class Play

"Adam and Eva," a three-act comedy, was presented by the June '33 graduating class on April 19 and 20, under the direction of Mrs. Grace Douglas Leonard, dramatic director. It was enthusiastically received by a large audience.

The play, written by F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, tells the story of a rich man and his family of spoiled children and sponging relatives. Mr. King, the father, disgusted with family life, goes to South America leaving his family in charge of his junior partner, Adam Smith. Adam decides to teach the family a lesson and informs them that their entire fortune has been lost in the stock market. They are forced to leave their beautiful home and go to a New Jersey farm where they raise bees and chickens. When Mr. King returns, he finds his family happy and contented. The romance is furnished by Adam Smith and King's younger daughter Eva.

The play was double cast, one cast playing Friday and the other Saturday evening. The two casts were as follows:

Characters	Friday Evening
King	George Bafus
Corinthia	Lucille Engdahl
Julie	Frances Willard
Clinton	Marco Bruschi
Aunt Abbie	Jeannette Aumack
Uncle Horace	Vernon Riley
Eva	Freda Staeheli
Dr. Delameter	Lynn Smith
Lord Andrew	Ralph Brown
Adam	Jack Carey

Characters	Saturday Evening
King	Art Pritchard
Corinthia	Ruth Carter
Julie	Lillian Young
Clinton	Earle Miles
Aunt Abbie	Frances Clark
Uncle Horace	Del Waterhouse
Eva	Leola Wilson
Dr. Delameter	Lynn Smith
Lord Andrew	Dick Scott
Adam	Claude Moore

Jack Carey and Claude Moore, playing the leading male role of Adam Smith, showed remarkable ability. Both are to be commended on their splendid characterization. Eva, the feminine lead, played by Freda Staeheli and Leola Wilson, was a delightfully vivacious and interesting girl. Art Pritchard greatly amused the audience as the irate father. He showed outstanding ability in a distinctly adult role. One of the favorite characters was that of Corinthia as played by Lucille Engdahl. Lucille played convincingly a rather difficult part.

The situation and the dialogue combined to make an interesting comedy, while attractive settings and frequent costume changes added much to the play. The first two scenes were laid in the luxurious drawing room of the King residence. The third was a farmyard in New Jersey.

Much credit is due Mrs. Leonard and Miss Moore for their splendid direction of the play. Sylvine McGinnis and Barbara Morrison acted as assistant directors, and Eleanor Carbon and Hilda Tessendorf also contributed toward making the play a success.

One-Act Plays

In addition to the class play the Senior Dramatics class presented five one act plays during the semester. The first, a farce by Kenyon Nicholson entitled "Apartments to Let," was the story of two sisters who left no stone unturned to secure tenants for their apartments. Ralph Brown, as Horace Green, drew many laughs with his clever acting. Laurel Branch, a widow, who with the aid of a negligee, vamps Mr. Green, was played by Leola Wilson. Barbara Morrison took the part of Mrs. Green, Horace's wife and a would-be opera star. Sylvine McGinnis played the role of Vera, the other sister. The play was directed by Lucille Engdahl.

The second play was a comedy by Booth Tarkington entitled "The Trysting Place." The cast was as follows:

Lancelot Briggs	Lynn Smith
Mrs. Briggs	Jeannette Aumack
Jessie Briggs	Ruth Carter
Rupert Smith	Marco Brusch
Mr. Ingolsby	Jack Carey
Mrs. Curtiss	Frances Willard

Complications arose when too many lovers attempted to occupy the trysting place at one time. The cast received much praise for their splendid performance.

Hilda Tessendorf directed the third play, a fantasy entitled "Matinata." Columbine, the wife was played by Lillian Young. Frances Clark was her husband, Pierrot, and Eleanor Carbon, the "other man." The scene was laid in the interior of Pierrot's home. The play was lightly clever; attractive costumes added much to its success.

"Fixin's," a tragedy of Southern farm life by Paul Green was another of the plays presented. This play won a national prize for one-act plays in 1929. Freda Stacheli played the part of the wife. Her ignorant and jealous husband was played by Claude Moore. Jack Carey was the landowner. Despite the fact that high school audiences do not always care for tragedies, the play was well received. All three players did splendid characterizations.

The last in the series of one-act plays was Lord Dunsany's "A Night at an Inn." This is a gruesome mystery-drama of a stolen ruby which forms the eye of a hideous idol. The thieves are followed by three priests of Klesh whom the sailors brutally murder. Then the idol itself comes in to retrieve its lost eye and kills the three thieves. The audience responded very well to this mystery. The cast for the play consisted of:

The Toff	Earle Miles
Bill Jones	Dick Scott
Albert Thomas	Vernon Riley
Jacob Smith (Sniggers)	Del Waterhouse
First Priest of Klesh	Lynn Smith
Second Priest of Klesh	Jack Carey
Third Priest of Klesh	Marco Brusch
Klesh	Art Pritchard

The Orchestra

The North Central orchestra, with C. Olin Rice as its capable director, has steadily advanced in numbers and efficiency until it is now one of the largest and best in Spokane. This worth while enterprise was begun in 1919.

Besides daily rehearsals in the school auditorium, the orchestra has taken part in many school projects. It has assisted at the class play, at convocations, P.-T. C. meetings and commencement exercises. It also made an appearance at Havermale this semester.

The North Central orchestra was well represented in the biennial concert presented by the all-Northwestern school orchestra in Seattle on April 19. The following members attended: Lesley Frazier, Bernice Bentley, George Low, Bonita Burke, violins; Florence Schweppe, bass viol; and Charles Johnson, cello.

The fifty-eight members of the orchestra are:

First violin—Eugene Adams, Bob Armstrong, Bernice Bentley, Boh Brandt, Bonita Burke, George Finch, Lesley Frazier, Lillian Grimsrud, June Jenson, Lawrence Lemon, George Low, Ruth Macomber, Lea Minsky, Elaine Myers, Del Waterhouse, Beatrice Watterud.

Second violin—Glen Allen, Ethel Anne, Margaret Childs, Frank Colang, Edna Dumbolton, Tom Fry, Betty Heath, Florence Harton, Jannette Rice, Merlin Shaw, Charles Uhden, Rosemary Wiley, Gaylord Zimmerman.

The Band

Love,

Valine Purdue

The North Central band, not only one of the largest, but also one of the best in the Northwest, is a school organization that merits highest commendation.

Much of the success of this group is to be attributed to the competent leadership of Lowell C. Bradford. His capability as a director is evidenced in the many outstanding accomplishments of the band.

One hundred and thirteen musicians comprised the group this semester. The foremost presentation was the nineteenth semi-annual concert given in the school auditorium on May 26.

The program included numbers by the full band of 100 pieces and the concert band of 80 pieces. The feature number was the "Overture Zampa," by Herold. There were novelty numbers consisting of selections by the clarinet quartet, which made its initial appearance in our concerts. Special numbers included a trumpet duet, Roy Ranniger and William Woodman; saxophone solo, Harold Langeloh; baritone duet, Roy Vernstrom and Bob Jordan.

The Pep band which is composed of ten boys also in the full organization, has been unusually active during the spring term. It has assisted at pep convocations, P.-T. C. meetings, noon luncheons and numerous other entertainments. Harold Langeloh, who is leader of the pep band, is to be commended for his exceptional work. Other members are Francis Pearson, Albert Wied, Roy Ranniger, Bill Ells, Osmer Jensen, Bob Jordan, Roger Bankson, Frank Fay and Jack McEachran.

Personnel of the band is as follows:

Trumpet—Jack Banks, Harvey Callihan, Marion Clapp, Marvin Courtney, Bill Ells, Adrian Flower, Jim Fulton, Don Garriss, Bill Gilbert, Milton Haywood, Spencer Jilek, Herbert Kaesemeyer, Armin Knaack, Bob Morrison, Sam Morton, Harry Muchlam, George Mueller, Larry Owens, Don Partridge, Russell

Potter, Roy Ranniger, Howard Smith, Richard Steiner, Ted Tremblay, Harry Vaughn, William Woodman, Harley Yake.

Horn—Bob Davis, Ed Davis, Volney Deal, Kenneth Gallagher, Earl Gray, Robert Grimmer, Emerson Lillwitz, Dwight Russell, Maurice Swank.

Baritone—Bob Jordan, Austin Rancey, Roy Vernstrom, Eugene Bean.

Trombone—Thad Allen, Leonard Anderson, Ward Barnes, Ray Gist, Osmer Jensen, Charles Johnson, Carl Jones, Bill Kranzush, Herbert Krauel, Vernon McGuire, Jack Morine, Arthur Pagnotta, Rowland Witt, Carmon La Londe.

Bass—Morton Allen, Fred Goffinet, Harry Gribbolm, Melvin Walker, Herschell Wright.

Drum—Emory Baker, Frank Fay, Dan Harris, Freeman Jensen, Jack McEachran, Sid Piper, Charles Rice, Roy Marquardt.

Piccolo—George Gunn. Flute—Robert Berg, Richard Bird, Lawrence Ferente. Bassoon—Brandt Gessel.

Clarinet—William Asselin, Bill Bayne, Lewis Bjornson, Willard Burchett, Clifford Clapp, Richard Deavitt, Harold Drinkard, Bill Ecker, Francis Hanson, Bruce Hoesly, Richard Hoffman, Stanley Hughart, Lowell Jacobs, John Kapek, Fred Krauel, Linton Lang, Junior Lucnow, Warren McKinlay, Eldon Miller, Albert Myers, Francis Pearson, Ray Radky, Clinton Schenk, Clinton Thompson, Albert Wied, Russell Norenberg.

Saxophone—Rodger Bankson, Craig Batchelor, Leroy Bradbury, Billy Brown, Van Gloth, Robert Jorstad, Ted Kaesemeyer, Harold Langeloh, Lester McEachran, Hibbard Moore, Fred Smith, Glenn Snow, Gordon Sommer, Robert Urbahn, Jack Bierce.

The Band

GONZAGA VS. NORTH CENTRAL

January 5, 1933

The Indians started the season with a bang by defeating the Gonzaga Bull Pups 27 to 12. Stone, Wassenar and Kochler shared the honors for the most points. Each of the boys made six tallies.

ROGER, VS. NORTH CENTRAL

January 10, 1933

It seemed as if the Indians could not find the loop in the second game of the season and were defeated by the Jolly Pirates. Jim Thompson led the losers by chalking up 4 points.

LEWIS AND CLARK VS. NORTH CENTRAL

January 12, 1933

It looked as if it was going to be a close game because the score was 5 up at the end of the first half. The game was even until the last quarter. Every time Lageson, the Lewis and Clark forward, got the ball he would make a basket. At the end of the game the Tigers had 24 points and the Indians only 14. Kochler was high point man with six tallies.

GONZAGA VS. NORTH CENTRAL

January 17, 1933

The boys had lost two games, and they were working hard to win their contest with the Bull Pups. When the first half was over, the Gonzaga boys had a one point lead over the Indians. When the final shot rang out the Red Skins were defeated. The final score was 15 to 10. Jack Van Lippeloy was high man with 3 points.

ROGERS VS. NORTH CENTRAL

January 19, 1933

When the boys had met their third defeat, they made up their minds to defeat the Jolly Pirates in the next battle. In the first quarter the Indians worked well and had a slight margin over their opponents. When the half was over the Pirates had chalked up 13 points to the Teepee Dwellers 8. The Rogers team moved up a few points and managed to keep the lead. At the end of the game the Indians had met their fourth defeat. The final score was 18 to 12 in favor of the Pirates. Jack Van Lippeloy led the losers with 6 points.

LEWIS AND CLARK VS. NORTH CENTRAL

January 24, 1933

The team still had enough fighting spirit to try to trounce the Tigers. Max Tatman made the first basket of the game. Lewis and Clark called time out and when they came out of the buddle the fire-works started. When the half was over the Tigers had 15 points and the Indians only 2. The fourth quarter started and the Red Skins woke up. Wassenar made 9 points but the team was still on the small end of the score. The final count was 23 to 17 in favor of the Tigers.

THE SANDPOINT TRIP

January 28, 1933

When the team started on the trip we knew we were going to have a battle on our hands, because we were to play one of the best teams in northern Idaho. When we got about twenty miles out of town the snow got deeper all the time. Once in a while the car would go down the road sideways and give all the thrill of a lifetime. The greatest scare came when we reached the bridge across the river. It was two miles long, and had about two feet of snow on it. It was not so bad going until we had to pass a car. Every time we met a car we thought we were going to go in the river, because there was not a railing on the bridge. We arrived safely in Sandpoint, and the game started about 9 o'clock. The team was working good together, but at the half Sandpoint was ahead 11 to 9. The boys worked hard in the second half and took the lead in the third quarter. They soon chalked up a few more points, and when the gun went off we were ahead 24 to 19. After the game all the players, Coach Buckley, Mr. Taylor and Curtis Whiteside, enjoyed a dinner at the Green Leaf Cafe in Sandpoint.

GONZAGA VS. NORTH CENTRAL

February 2, 1933

After defeating Sandpoint the players went over to Gonzaga determined to beat them. They put all they had into the game and at the end of the first half they led the Bull Pups by 16 points. They held their own and as the gun sounded for the end of the game North Central was still ahead. The final score was 24 to 13.

ROGERS VS. NORTH CENTRAL

February 7, 1933

When the team defeated Gonzaga they became a little more confident in themselves. The game was played at Rogers, and the players wanted to win. At the half the Indians had a two point margin on the Pirates. In the second half the Pirates pasted the team up several times but they were able to overcome their op-next year together - Well we had a lot of fun -

Lucile
Lee

Early this spring Coach J. Wesley Taylor issued the first call for track. About 160 men answered the call to the cinder path and started working out every night after school.

Mr. Taylor had only five lettermen to build up a team. They were: Vincent Sherman, Jack Carey, Howard Wassenar, Royce Welch and Ralph Anderson.

The first meet of the season was with Rogers, April 21, on the Indians' playfield.

THE ROGERS MEET

North Central's track and field team defeated the Jolly Pirates 67 to 55, on the North Central field. There was a large crowd to see the events.

Rogers came closer to defeating the Indians than they ever have in the past, and it was a fight to the finish. The score was close, and the Pirates tried desperately to overtake the swift Hansen of North Central, but the latter held his lead all the way. Bruno and Poffenroth took second and third in the mile.

Results of meet:

100-yard dash—Sherman, N. C., first; Mortenson, R., second; Ewing, R., third. Time, 0:10.6.

880-yard dash—Anderson, N. C., first; Patrick N. C., second; Dohelstein, N. C., third. Time, 1:38.

Shot put—Taylor, N. C., first; Welch, N. C., second; Dean, R., third. 41' 8".

Relay—won by North Central (Krick, Scott, Waters, Sherman.)

THE GONZAGA MEET

The Indians won their second meet of the year by defeating the fighting Bull Pups 74 to 18. In a thrilling race, Sherman nosed out Strong of Gonzaga, and took first place in the 100-yard dash. North Central took all three places in the mile run. Those who won points in the event were; Hanson, Wassenar and Scharwat. The Indians also took the half mile run with Anderson, Patrick and Dohelstein finishing in that order. Harry Stone won the 440-yard event. His time was, 56.4. Stone also won the high jump at 5' 5". Wassenar tied tied Cobb of Gonzaga in the pole vault to add a few points to the Indians' score. The Indians won ten first places in the meet, and tied two.

100-yard dash—Sherman, N. C., first; Strong, G., second; Krick, N. C., third. Time, :10.4.

220-yard dash—Sherman, N. C., first; Strong, G., second; McBreen, G., third. Time, :23.5.

440-yard dash—Stone, N. C., first; Treisch, G., second; Buchanan, G., third. Time, :56.4.

Baseball

When Coach Buckley issued a call for baseball, about fifty boys answered the call. The squad was soon out and the team started working hard. Seven lettermen were back to help win the city series. They were: Joe Stan, catcher; Ed Anderson, outfielder; Harold Godfrey, pitcher; George Bafus, first base; Ralph Mills, short stop; Sammy Morton, short stop; and Max Schoening, third. The first practice game of the season was played against the Whitworth college boys. The Indians defeated them 24 to 6.

LEWIS AND CLARK VS. NORTH CENTRAL

The Indians lost their first game of the season to the Lewis and Clark boys. This was the first opening game the Indians had lost in seven years of competition. Godfrey yielded only four hits in six innings and struck out nine men, but six bases on balls gave the Tigers ample time for scoring. Muzatko yielded six scattered hits, fanned eleven and walked five. Close fielding checked several seemingly sure Indian hits. The final score was 7 to 4 in favor of the Tigers.

NORTH CENTRAL VS. ROGERS

The Indians met their second defeat of the season by going down to the Jolly Pirates. Dave Jamme started on the mound for the Redskins and near the end he was replaced by Harold Godfrey. Jamme was the only man to get a two base hit on the Indian team. Four substitutes were used by the Indians in the game. Harris, the Rogers pitcher, was too good for the boys and managed to strike out thirteen of the Warriors. Godfrey struck out four and Jamme three. The final score was 8 to 4 in favor of the Pirates.

LEWIS AND CLARK VS. NORTH CENTRAL

The Indians lost their third game of the season to the lucky Tigers in a drizzling rain on the Warrior's field. Muzatko, the Tiger pitcher, was just a little too good for the Redskin batters. Jamme pitched a good game for the Indians, but due to poor fielding the Indians met their defeat. Bases on balls—off Jamme, 2; Muzatko, 2. Struck out—by Jamme, 5; Muzatko, 8.

NORTH CENTRAL VS. ROGERS

The Warriors gained their first victory of the season by overcoming the Pirates 12 to 11 in a riotous game. At the beginning of the fifth the score was tied at five all. In that inning the Indians made seven runs but Rogers came right back and added nine in their half. The pitchers of the two schools faced 26 men in the one inning. In the first of the seventh the Warriors came back for three runs and clinched the ball game. Godfrey started the game but was relieved by Jamme in the fourth. Wallace of Rogers hit a homer and Anderson and Schoening of North Central got triples.

Tennis

The first nice weather this spring brought out sixty boys interested in tennis. Coach Edge held an elimination tournament to select a squad as no letterman were back. Prospects for the next season are bright for many of the boys turning out are underclassmen and will be back next year.

Following are the names of the players who ranked highest: Lester McEachran, Kenneth Jones, Lloyd Butler, Jim Ashlock, Bob Quillian, Cliff Hampton, A. Corvi, Earl Ferrier, Art Acre, Roy Vernstrom, F. Curran, Linton Lang, Jim Holsclaw, Langdon Nysoe. Dick Waller manages the team.

Summary: Whitworth vs. North Central.

Cliff Hampton, N. C., defeated Benson, W., 6-1, 6-2.

McIntyre, W., defeated Ashlock, N. C., 6-2, 6-2.

Bradford, W., defeated McEachran, N. C., 6-1, 11-9.

Grieve, W., defeated Holsclaw, N. C., 12-10, 3-6, 6-2.

Lowell, W., defeated Jones, N. C., 2-6, 6-1, 6-1.

Smith, W., defeated Achre, N. C., 6-1, 6-2.

HIKING

Time: 5:00 A. M.

Place: Smith home.

Scene: Mother's and father's bedroom.

"For goodness sake, Henry, did the alarm ring?"

"No, it didn't, but it sounds like somebody is moving around down stairs and nobody's going to walk off with the family silver while Henry Smith is in this household."

"Oh, do come back to bed. That's only Mary Margaret getting some eggs to take on her breakfast hike."

"Breakfast hike! Well, of all the tomfoolery. Does she have to walk 10 miles just to eat breakfast? She won't touch an egg at home."

"But Henry, I heard you remark just the other day how rosy and husky Mary Margaret is looking. Only fresh air and exercise could change a child so."

"Yes, I remember. Say, she isn't so peevish and irritable either. Those hikes doing that? If so I'm for 'em, but I can't say I like the idea of a bunch of girls going out alone like that."

"Oh, but they don't go out alone. Miss Johnson, their faculty adviser, a very capable woman, goes on every hike, and Dorothy Tess, the student leader, keeps all the girls together and in order. I'm glad Mary Margaret has been able to go because she has learned the fun of the great outdoors and the pleasure of associating with girls of her own age."

"Well, how did this thing start? Somebody showed darn good sense in planning an activity like that."

"Didn't you hear the girls talking about it last night? Miss Pinkham started it in 1920. Any girl in school can go on these hikes, and sometimes they plan special jamts, such as, moonlight hikes, weiner roasts, and over night hikes. I believe I'd enjoy going on one of them myself."

AFTER SCHOOL RECREATION

Thursday night

Dear Midge,

This letter will be a lot different from the others I have written you. I don't miss the old school nearly so much now that I am really getting acquainted here. My big cousin (we call them that here at North Central) took me to the after school recreation, and is it fun! This recreation is a comparatively new thing here at school. Miss Ellis, the girls' adviser, started it about two years ago to enable the students to get better acquainted and to have a good time together.

Every Thursday seventh period, the committee headed by LaVerne Freegord, gets out the equipment. Then as the closing bell rings, there is a mad stampede for the cafe and the games. The games are surely appropriate for get-togethers. I think Miss Jahreiss showed extremely good taste in picking them, and Miss Mitchell, the faculty adviser, has kept them in perfect condition. Considering that there is an average of 200 players a week, one would hardly believe that we still have all the checkers, dominoes and jig-saw puzzles; but the wide-awake committee members and the charming teachers who advise this project see that perfect order is kept and that everyone has a good time.

I'm not nearly so lonesome now that I went to the recreation and met some of my fellow students.

With love,

Mary

TENNIS

From the group of 80 girls who turned out for tennis at the beginning of the season a squad of about 35 remains. This group has been practicing every Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, and every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon under the direction of Miss Pinkham, assisted by Lucille Lee, captain, Maude McCannon, chairman, and Marion Blane, manager. At the close of the semester the team will have played five interscholastic tournaments, four of which are now played off. Two of these were lost to West Valley and the others were victories over John Rogers and Spokane U.

Graduation will take from the team, Jean True, our first ranker, who has her captain's letter for tennis and who was one of North Central's mermaids. Marion Blane, who has tried her hand at all types of athletics and won all awards but a swimming letter, and Evelyn Kull, who went out for everything and won honors in most. The others who places will be vacant in the fall are: Pauline Stutsman, Bessie Barnes and Margaret Rodgers.

TRACK AND BASEBALL

The girls held a track meet similar to those of the boys this year. All of the usual field events but the hurdles were used and points were given toward all-activity letters. This meet was held on May 24, under the supervision of J. Wesley Taylor. Miss Pinkham and Miss Jahreiss coached their gym classes in track work to enable them to participate in this event.

One hundred fifty-seven prospective "Babe Ruths" reported for the first practice of the season. These girls formed class teams and are now playing for the baseball championship. Miss Jahreiss is in charge of this activity and her assistants are: Caroline Junl and Maude Taschereau, Beverly Hupperton and Jane Moon.

SKATING

The Skating club under the direction of Miss Mary Sidney Mitchell was a popular sporting feature for both boys and girls. The club took 12 excursions to nearby rinks in cars furnished by obliging teachers, parents and students. Lesley Frazier and Ned Graves were the student managers.

GOLF

Miss Everett, the instructor for girls' golf, reported a growing interest in this game. The club was started nearly two years ago and now every Saturday its members go to Downriver course to practice and to play.

GYM SHOW

Since mass participation had never seen fair play,

Miss Pinkham, Jahreiss, and Walker decided that some day,

They'd train their thousand girls or so,

And prove to folks who didn't know,

That a mass gym class is an orderly show.

So after working months of days,

Devising dances, games and plays,

They drilled these thousand girls or so

In groups that were all taught to go

As one, in movement quick or slow.

Then close upon the Ides of March,

Costumes and rompers stiff with starch,

This mass of girls in colors bright,

Thronged to the gym on that cool spring night,

Sure their drills would be just right.

The game of recreation showed their varied skills

Coordinating action was shown in many drills.

Dainty costumed dancers then displayed their grace,

While "Plantation Playtime" brought smiles to every face,

And marching girls were perfect each in her own place.

Singing games brought memories from the little red schoolhouse.

The dance done by the two black cats would even please a mouse.

Music directed by C. Olin Rice, to which the travellers pranced,

Changed to the thud of the deep tom-toms while stoic Indians danced

And into the sea of faces brown skinned maidens glanced.

And so in other days to come beside the Pow-Wow fire

The maids and braves of old N. C. will heap the fuel higher

And as they vanquish every foe

Praises they'll sing of the girl's gym show,

And mass participation that made it so.

ALL-ACTIVITY AWARD

The point system of awarding interclass letters has been a great success. Many girls who would never have received awards under the old system are now going out for athletics to earn their shields. As only 400 points are necessary, and points are given for every activity taken part in, it is not difficult to see why more and more members of the P. E. department have a Red and Black shield.

CAGEBALL

The girls who came to the cageball practices were divided into four teams, "Cage Sisters," "Nine Terrors," "Squaws" and "Gogettems." These teams competed for the honor of demonstrating this game at the gym exhibition. The winning groups were the "Cage Sisters" and the "Gogettems." Marjorie Lee and Lucille Leone were the manager and chairman; Miss Jahreiss supervised the tournament.

TENNIQUOIT

Tenniquoit, or deck tennis, is a comparatively new sport to many, but the 18 girls who took part in the tournament which Miss Jahreiss managed are enthusiastic over the game. Both singles and doubles were played and the winners were: Doubles, Marguerite Mehlert and Ada May Lyon; singles, Myrtle Kull.

Button Busters

Bafus: I heard that you gave your girl some lipstick for her birthday.

Mills: Yes, but I got it all back when she thanked me.

Whitemarsh: Is that a dagger I see before me?

Morrison: No it's my elbow.

Claude M.: Would you scream if I kissed you?

Virginia U.: I wouldn't want to frighten mother.

Waiter: Milk or water?

Jeanie T.: Don't tell me—let me guess.

Frances Clark: I feel just like I look this morning.

Two minutes later: I feel fine this morning, girls.

Teach: How do you spell bed?

Stude: I don't know.

T: Well, what do you sleep in at night?

S: My pajamas.

A pun is the odor of a fading mind.

Dunab Frosh: Excuse me, could you tell me the way to the lecture hall?

Moore: 'Fraid I can't; I'm a student myself.

Teacher: Marco, to what class of the animal kingdom do I belong?

Bruschi: I don't know teacher. Pa says your an old hen and Ma say's your an old cat.

Golfer: If you laugh at me again, I'll knock your head off.

Avey: Haw, baw, you wouldn't even know what club to use.

Barnes: I won't send my stuff to the Happy Daize Magazine.

Miss Freakes: Why not?

Barnes: I don't like the color of their rejection slips.

Moore: Ah, ba! I see my friend gave you a black eye.

Brown: Why, you never saw the person who gave me that black eye.

Claude: Well, he's my friend, anyway.

Stone: What do you mean telling Kay I was a fool?

Frazier: I'm sorry. I didn't know it was a secret.

He: The man who married Ethel got a prize.

She: What was it?

Prison Warden: You are to leave here today.

Prisoner Brown: (Who has been very comfortable.) Heavens, what have I done wrong.

Excited passenger: Pilot, look! There's a forest fire.

Pilot: What do you want me to do, spit?

Viear Bruschi: Ah, Miss Russell, I too have had to pinch all my life to make both ends meet.

Aimee: Lordy, sir, ain't it lucky you never was caught.

Fashion-plate—Bob Kimball: It sometimes takes a girl a long time to learn that a flirtation is attention without intention.

Adam: I'll be quite frank with you, you are not the first girl I've ever kissed.

Eva: And I'll be equally frank with you. You have a lot to learn.

Bruschi: Sorry, old top, but I can't pay you because I'm broke. You can't get blood out of a turnip, you know.

Taxi driver (rolling up sleeves): Yea, you ain't no turnip.

After receiving report cards—

Frosh: What will father say?

Soph: And I thought that I knew my way around.

Junior: There goes my allowance.

Senior: I didn't think they gave those grades to seniors.

P. G.: (Censored.)

Jack Carey: Well, dearest, what did your father say when he found that I wanted to marry you?

Freda Staeheli: At first he demurred because he didn't want to lose me, but I explained that he could have me, and that he would have you to boot.

Jack: That sounds all right, except for the 'to boot' part.

Lynn Smith: For two cents I'd kiss you.

Frances: Here's a dollar, boy, and let's get going.

Evalyn Smith: But surely you didn't tell him right out that you loved him

V. Underwood: Goodness no, he had to squeeze it out of me.

Mr. Jones: Harry, will you now prove the Pythagorean Theorem?

Stone: Why waste time? Let's just admit it.

Virginia Mutch: Ob, Mr. Sanborn, what kind of rocks are those?

Sandy: Those are Gneiss.

Mutch: Yes, I know, but what kind of rock is it?

NORTH CENTRAL VS. LEWIS AND CLARK

The North Central track team was defeated by the Tigers in their third meet of the season. The final score was 63 to 59 in favor of the Bengals.

The Indians won all the track events but the low hurdles and the 440, and lost all the field events except the pole vault.

Sherman won both the 100-yard dash and the 220.

The relay was the high spot of the day. Lauren Krick started the race against Bowser, the fastest man on the Tiger team. Krick ran the outside and he nearly ran Bowser to death.

Tatman took the stick from Krick and didn't lose an inch. He then passed the stick to Crow and Crow lost four yards and gave the stick to Sherman. Sherman passed up Richardson, the Lewis and Clark man, and won the race by four yards.

The summary:

ponents. When the time was up we were on the long end of the score. The final count was 27 to 25. Wassenar led the team by making 8 points.

LEWIS AND CLARK VS. NORTH CENTRAL

February 9, 1933

This was one of the best games of the year. North Central had a 6 point lead. In the fourth quarter the Bengals staged a rally. The score was 17 to 16 in favor of Tigers. Just at the gun went off the referee gave Johnson a free throw. Luck was with him and he made it. This tied the score so they had to play an extra period. When this was completed the Teepee Dwellers were victorious. The final score was 20 to 17. Stone was high point man with 8 points.

GONZAGA VS NORTH CENTRAL

February 14, 1933

After winning four games in a row, the team met Gonzaga for the fourth time in our gymnasium. The boys had another hard game on their hands and they knew it. They went on the floor determined to win. At the end of the first half the Indians had a four point lead over the Pups. When the battle was almost over the Gonzaga boys fought hard to make a few more points, but the Warriors managed to keep the ball. The game soon ended and the Tepee Dwellers had won another game. The final count was 14 to 13 in favor of the Indians.

ROGERS VS NORTH CENTRAL

February 16, 1933

The next to the last game of the season was played against the Pirates, on the North Central floor. The Red Skins were out to scalp the Jolly Pirates. As the game progressed, the Indians managed to take the lead. Harry Stone chalked up 7 points, and the rest of the tribe garnered five more. All the Pirates could account for was 9. At the beginning of the third quarter the Pirates managed to catch up with the Warriors. Just as the gun sounded, the Indians made their winning basket. Harry Stone was high man, with 13 points. The final score was 24 to 22.

LEWIS AND CLARK VS NORTH CENTRAL

February 24, 1933

The Indians played the last game of the season against Lewis and Clark. The Tepee Dwellers had won six games in a row, and they wanted to end the season with another win. At the end of the first half the Indians were on the small end of the score. In the second half the Indians failed to find the basket, and

ART

The Tamarack staff wishes to express its appreciation to Dick Bird, art editor, for the splendid work done on the cover and initial pages of this issue of the Tamarack.

A contest open to advanced Art students was held to select the most adaptable and complete suggestion for art work in the annual. Miss Ashley, head of the fine arts department, chose Dick's work as being by far the best contribution. He has done all the designing and art work in this publication.

Dick is a Junior B and is enrolled in Arts 5. Miss Ashley says that he does consistently good work and is much interested in art. Dick was winner of the Poster Contest sponsored by the Senior Dramatics class in 1932.

First Frosh: Great Scott, I've forgotten who wrote "Ivanhoe."

Second Greeny: I'll tell if you'll tell me who the dickens wrote "The Tale of Two Cities."

THE TAMARACK

JUNE 1933

DELTA III-JINX

Clever musicians, graceful dancers and talented actors presented the annual Delta III-Jinx May 5 at 8 o'clock. The tickets sold for a new low price, 25 cents.

Bill Melson and Fran Pearson were the masters of ceremonies and they announced each of the numbers in a novel way. The Three Queens of Harmony delighted the large audience with their clever arrangements of some of the popular songs. Les Wade brought down the house with his rendition of "Brother Can You Spare a Dime?". "Iron Minnie's Revenge," the melodramatic, was presented by the graceful members of the club.

The pep band played several selections and the members of a dancing school demonstrated their ability. The Delta follies, composed of the buxom lads of the club, was a presentable combination of ballet dancers. In the grand finale all the members and entertainers joined in singing the Delta song.

Bill Melson was the general manager of the production and much of its success was due to him and his able assistants, Jack Van Lippeley, Fran Pearson and Cliff Hultgren. Coach Archie Buckley is the director of the Deltas.
